5. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Spoke with Jack Brady, House International Relations Committee staff, and he agreed with the ground rules which we were attempting to work out with Leslie Yates, Subcommittee on International Resources, Food and Energy staff, House International Relations Committee, in connection with a briefing on Angola. Our briefing would concern itself exclusively with substantive intelligence information; that Representative Charles Diggs (D., Mich.), Chairman of the Subcommittee, would rule out of order any questions relating to CIA.

Subsequently, Ms. Yates called saying that Chairman Diggs wanted to invite the "Africa Group," consisting of some 15 members, who have a strong interest in African matters. I pointed out that since this was to be an informal session, we wanted to be assured that no member would feel free on procedural grounds to discuss classified information which could not be revealed under Committee rules if it was a formal session and I received such assurances. On that basis and in response to her query, I told her that widening the audience would not affect the substance of our briefing. I also recommended that our intelligence briefing be separated from the group's session with Edward Mulcahy, Deputy Assistant Secretary of African Affairs, State Department, and she agreed. Messrs. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] OER, will present the briefing at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow in Room 2255 Rayburn House Office Building.

16. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Edward Mulcahy, State Department, regarding the briefing Representative Charles Diggs (D., Mich.) has requested for tomorrow afternoon on Africa. Mr. Mulcahy said Mr. Diggs wants the meeting to be in his office and not be recorded but he would tend to treat it as a briefing session. He said he talked with Kempton Jenkins, also of State Department, and suggested he go to Chairman Thomas Morgan (D., Pa.), House International Relations Subcommittee on Oversight, and see if it was in Mr. Diggs' mandate. Mr. Mulcahy said Representative Stephen Solarz (R., N.Y.) started pushing him on newspaper reports on activities in Angola. He said he would not comment on speculation of intelligence activities. Mr. Solarz asked Mr. Mulcahy if he wanted the record to stand with that answer and Mulcahy said yes, but that he would talk privately with Mr. Solarz. Mulcahy said Mr. Solarz did not talk privately with him. I told Mulcahy I had talked with Marian Czarnecki, House International Relations Committee, who said it was fine to give the Subcommittee on International Resources, 25X1 Food and Energy a situation briefing but not to go beyond that. I said I
